1. About this Guide

This guide has been created to help you understand many aspects unique to the EUR-Organic programme. Since the EUR-Organic programme is an international programme that spans across Europe and includes students from all over the world, you will most likely encounter many new experiences throughout your two years with us. This guide will help you grasp the differences between cultures, university structures and general administrative procedures that vary across the countries and universities.

In the following section you will find important general information about the structure of the EUR-Organic programme, followed by an overview of administrative procedures at each of the partner universities. Special emphasis is given to the transfer from your home university, where you spend the first year of your studies, to the host university, where you will spend the second year of the M.Sc. programme. Some paperwork has to be done, but the programme coordinators at all partner universities strive to support you as much as possible.

Keep in mind that some things may change, and you should contact the direct source of information when it comes to specific issues, such as applications, deadlines and important requirements.

An electronic version of this guide can be downloaded at <http://www.eur-organic.eu/en/110981>

2. General Information about EUR-Organic

The Double Degree MSc program EUR-Organic offers a comprehensive and integrative education in all areas of organic farming, as well as the processing and commercialisation of organic food. The core of EUR-Organic is comprised of areas of specialisation that enable the students to benefit from the different foci of organic agriculture teaching and research of the partner universities.

None of the partner universities alone can offer such a wide range of elective and compulsory modules on organic agriculture and food systems. Together the partners create an added value for the students in teaching and research, e.g. in the wide range of topics for the master theses. Students are challenged by different thematic approaches throughout the course of their studies: while the University of Hohenheim focuses primarily on the Food Chain, the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna emphasises the system approach of organic farming. At Aarhus University students can focus on either Animal Health and Welfare or Plant Nutrition and Health. Warsaw University of Life Sciences offers a specialised study profile on "Organic Food Quality and Marketing". Our partner ISARA Lyon is offering a specialization in the field of "Agroecology"

In order to benefit from this complementary expertise and to get most of the programme, it is required that students spend one year at their chosen home university and one year at their chosen host university.

EUR-Organic Homepage

The EUR-Organic homepage www.eur-organic.eu/en is where you will find everything about how the EUR-Organic program functions. Detailed information about the different specialisations offered by the EUR-Organic partner universities and the corresponding semester packages are available online. This information is essential for you to register for your courses at your home and host university.

The EUR-Organic homepage is updated regularly: You will find all information about current issues which are relevant for you as a student of the EUR-Organic programme on the website. For example, all news about summer course options, upcoming events, important reminders about deadlines, semester package changes as well as general information updates.

2.1 Program Structure

The full MSc study program is made up of 120 ECTS (credits): Two Basic Semester Packages (2 x 30 ECTS), one Specialisation Semester Package (30 ECTS) and a master thesis (30 ECTS).

The program will start with a joint start-up module that is compulsory for all students enrolled in the double degree programme.

During the MSc program all double degree students will be studying at two different EUR-Organic partner universities. The university where the student is accepted in the first year of the EUR-Organic is referred to as the home university. The university that the student chooses as second university is referred to as the host university. As WULS-SGGW and ISARA – Lyon do not offer a full MSc programme yet, students can currently choose between BOKU, UHOH and AU as home university and between UHOH, AU, BOKU, ISARA and WULS-SGGW as host university.

The master thesis has to be assigned to the host university. The master thesis will be jointly supervised.

Overview of the EUR-Organic Program Structure

Home university	1 st Semester	Basic semester	Joint start-up module + e-learning in semester (6 ECTS at UHOH and BOKU, 5 ECTS at AU)
			Compulsory courses 24 (25) ECTS
	2 nd Semester	Basic semester	Compulsory modules and elective modules (30 ECTS)
Host university	3 rd Semester	Specialisation	Elective modules (30 ECTS) / Master thesis
	4 th Semester	Master thesis	Master thesis (30 ECTS) / Elective modules

2.2 Start-up Module

A joint start-up module is organized for all first year students in the EUR-Organic program.

The start-up module is organized by one of the partner universities. WULS-SGGW will organize the joint start-up module in September 2018.

- Soon after your admission to the EUR-Organic program, you will receive an invitation including practical information.
- The participation in the start-up module is mandatory for double degree students. Only if a student cannot attend due to extenuating circumstances (illness, visa problems) the start-up module can be replaced by the module "Organic Food Systems and Concepts" (UHOH) or by the courses "Introduction to Animal Production" resp. "Introduction to Crop Nutrition and Health" (AU). EUR-Organic students who do not participate in the Start-up module without justification will have to follow the EUR-Organic single degree track at their home university.
- The start-up module is usually scheduled during September each year and lasts about one week. The phase of attendance during that week is followed by e-learning activities at the individual home university during the first semester. Because these e-learning activities differ between universities, students earn 6 ECTS credits at UHOH resp. 5 ECTS credits at AU.

- Travelling to and from the Start Up Location is in the responsibility of the individual student. Accommodation, food and transportation during the Start Up Module will be organised. A participation fee will be charged.
- Please note: The Start-Up Module 2018 will take place in Poland beginning of September. Non-EU-students may have to apply for a visa for Poland additional to the visa for the country of their respective home university!

At some of the universities there are strict pre-requisites that also apply to EUR-Organic students. Although many courses will not have prerequisites, it is important to check the requirements on the university homepages.

2.4.1 Course and Exam Registration at UHOH

- Registration for courses is only needed if course participation is limited to a certain number of participants. In order to find out, please check the module catalogue (<https://www.uni-hohenheim.de/en/modulkatalog/studiengang/eur-organic-po-2014>). If there is a limited number of participants, this will be stated under the “comments” (“Anmerkungen”) section of the module description. Before lectures start, please check whether the modules you have chosen have a limited number of participants or not.
- If registration is requested please register in the e-learning platform ILIAS (https://ilias.uni-hohenheim.de/login.php?target=&client_id=UHOH&auth_stat=&lang=en) before lectures start. For all modules with a limited number of participants, the registration period starts at least one week before the start of the lecture period and ends the first week after the start of the lecture period. This also applies to modules that take place during the lecture-free period but not for modules in the blocked period. For unblocked modules, you must register at the latest at the end of the first lecture week!

Erasmus is a European Union-supported education and training programme. Once accepted to the Erasmus programme, you will receive funding which will help to finance your stay in your host country. The amount of money you will receive depends on which country you are applying in, and which country you are going too.

In the following sections you will find the procedure about how to apply for Erasmus at your home university. It is important that you apply in time, submit all paperwork, and follow the deadline dates in order to receive the grant

Erasmus application at UHOH

In January you will be invited by Dr. Gabriele Klumpp, ERASMUS coordinator at the University of Hohenheim (gabriele.klumpp@uni-hohenheim.de). She will provide you with detailed information on how to apply for Erasmus exchange semesters at your host university.

Students have to apply via “Mobility online”. Deadline for application is March 1st. You will have to complete the application form and upload an application photo.

Further information is available at <https://www.uni-hohenheim.de/en/aaa-abroad>.

- During the summer semester of the first year, students must apply for a preliminary approval of their individual course plan.

2.7 Transfer from Home to Host University – Incoming Students

- If you are a national of an EU/EEA country or Switzerland, you need no visa for your host country. However, since you will be in your host country for more than three months, you will have to register with the municipal or state authority.
- Citizens of almost all other countries have to apply for a visa or residence permit. For exceptions, please check the websites given for the individual countries. Detailed information about the procedures is available at the websites listed in the following sections.
- Important: Non-EU/EEA students have to apply for a visa/residence permit for two countries, the country of their home as well as of their host university. This means that you will need proof of sufficient funds to finance your stay in both countries.

2.7.3 Procedures at BOKU

Citizens from countries requiring a visa must apply for a residence permit for studying in Austria. Students who are not permitted to enter Austria without a visa have to submit their application for a residence permit for a “Student” in person at the responsible Austrian representative authority in their country before traveling to Austria. The residence permit should be applied for 6 months before the intended trip to Austria. However, nationals of certain countries who are allowed to enter Austria without a visa can also apply for the residence permit in person at the authority in charge of residence after entering Austria.

Further Information:

<https://oad.at/en/to-austria/entry-residence-and-employment/>

Generally, the residence permit is issued for 12 months.

Registration at the university

- At BOKU you will be registered as full degree student (see 2.6.1.). However, if you get an Erasmus scholarship from your home university, we ask that you also complete the online ERASMUS application (deadline: June 30)
- Once you have arrived, please go to the Registration Office (study services). Bring your valid passport/ID, your letter of admission and your preregistration number. There you will get your BOKUcard (student ID) and information about your BOKUonline account. You will have to pay the student union fee (currently €19,20) and tuition fee (only first year Non-EU/EEA citizens). Attention: To pay the student union fee you need a bank card. If you do not have a bank card, please ask your buddy to accompany you and use his/her card. (It is also possible to get a payment form and pay online at a bank, but then you can only activate your BOKUonline account and register for courses after approx. 5 working days! Some courses fill up quickly, so please try to pay directly at the Registration Office.)
- Activate your BOKUcard (at the green terminal next to the Registration Office) and activate your BOKUonline account with the pin that you have received at the Registration Office: <http://online.boku.ac.at> (Further Information see: <http://www.boku.ac.at/en/zid/themen/get-connected/account-password/bokucard-fuer-studierende/>)

Housing

See <http://short.boku.ac.at/int-in-life-accommodation-en.html>

Student halls of residence are an easy option when moving to a new city; they're also a great way to make friends and contacts in a short time period. The easiest way to book a room in a student hall of residence is to use the service of the OeAD (Österreichischer Austauschdienst - Austrian Exchange Office) – but you can also contact the dormitories directly (more complicated, but probably cheaper) or look for private accommodation.

The terms and conditions of the service of the OEAD are available online

<http://www.housing.oead.at>.

Please read them carefully and inform yourself about the registration procedure and about the conditions for termination of the contract. The deadline for the winter semester is August 15th (but we recommend applying in March/April as some dormitories are booked out soon). Please be aware that BOKU cannot help you find an accommodation – the OEAD handles this for us.

It is therefore also possible to apply for a Polish residence permit after arrival. Each document must be submitted in original and one copy. Each visa application, both Schengen and national, must be registered in advance in electronic system. For applying, you will have to present the following documents:

- Your passport (not a copy)
- One visa application form
- Evidence of legal permit in Germany, (e.g. valid visa or a residence card);
- Confirmation letter from a health insurance company stating coverage for a minimum of EUR 30.000,-.

2.7.5 Procedures at ISARA

Visa application

If you are planning to pursue an academic project at ISARA-Lyon for a period longer than 3 months, you MUST apply for a student visa. The student visa is MANDATORY for non-European students who come to study in France. You WILL NOT be able to ask for your visa once in France.

⚠ Depending on the country you live in, you may need to complete the Campus France online application process BEFORE you start your visa application.

You must schedule an in-person appointment at the closest French consulate via its official website. We encourage you to book your appointment at least 6 to 8 weeks prior to departure. Your visa appointment at a French consulate must take place no more than 90 days before, and at least 2 weeks prior, your departure to France.

Go to the consulate for a visa interview. You are required to attend in person. The main documents to supply are:

- Your passport (the validity of the passport must correspond to the duration of the visa requested).
- ISARA proof of enrolment.
- Proof of income.

Depending on the country, other documents can be required.

Once you are in France you may need to register with the local immigration office (Office Français de l'Immigration et de l'Intégration - OFII). Please check your local consulate's website to see if you must do so. If so, make sure you validate your student visa at the local immigration office within a few weeks after your arrival.

For more information please see the ISARA-Lyon website.

2.8 How to Write Your Thesis

In the EUR-Organic programme, your thesis will be worth 30 ECTS. The master thesis work has to be assigned to the host university. However, as the programme spans across 4 different universities, each of which has their own regulations for how a master's thesis should to be done, there are a number of things you should be aware of. When writing your thesis, you will need to follow the regulations at your host university, where your thesis is mainly supervised. This chapter provides you with an overview, please refer to the EUR-Organic Master Thesis Guide (Download: <https://www.eur-organic.eu/en/110981>) for specific information

The master thesis has to be jointly supervised by a supervisor from your host university and a co-supervisor from your home university.

2.8.1 Master Thesis at UHOH

- The master's thesis is usually written during the fourth semester. There might be cases, depending on the chosen modules, for which the third semester is more appropriate.

- Students have to register for the master thesis:
 - Three month after the announcement of the grade of the last taken exam (compulsory or elective module) OR
 - At the beginning of the seventh semester (within the first month of the semester)
- If you do not register within these timeframes, your master thesis will be graded "fail" (F; 5,0) unless you cannot be held responsible for the failure to comply with the deadline.
- The written part of the master thesis has to be completed within a period of six months.
- The master thesis must be written in English or German.
- The topic of the master's thesis has to be chosen from the subjects covered in one of the taken modules.
- Forms for registration are available in the study information centre (SIZ) or online via the Examination Office: https://www.uni-hohenheim.de/fileadmin/uni_hohenheim/PA/formulare/AN/Agrar/master/Anmeldeformular_Master-Arbeit_Agrar.pdf
- The exam consists of a written (thesis) and an oral (defence) part. The candidate has to defend the essential arguments, results and methods of the thesis in a colloquium of 30-45 minutes.
- More details are available at https://www.uni-hohenheim.de/en/euroganic-msc-pa-en#ifmulticontent_c226266-8

2.8.2 Master Thesis at AU

- When writing a thesis at AU, students normally have one main supervisor and one co-supervisor. The supervisors approve a thesis statement, and they contribute with professional and methodical supervision throughout the process.
- Students must draw up a thesis contract in co-operation with the supervisors. The thesis contract must be approved by the Study Board before commencement of the thesis.
- More information about master thesis requirements is provided online: <http://studerende.au.dk/en/studies/subject-portals/agroecology-food-and-environment/bachelors-project-masters-thesis-and-other-projects/masters-thesis/>

2.8.3 Master Thesis and Graduation at BOKU

- For graduation from BOKU it matters whether the master thesis is written and defended at BOKU (main supervisor) or not. EUR-Organic students who start their studies at BOKU (BOKU is their home university) have to write and defend the thesis at their host university. EUR-Organic students who spend their second year at BOKU (BOKU is their host university) have to write and defend their thesis at BOKU.
- Students who write their master thesis at BOKU, have to register their master thesis as soon as their topic and their supervisors (main supervisor and co-supervisor) have been fixed. There are no specific deadlines for the enrolment of the master thesis and for submitting the master thesis at BOKU.
- Please find all important information at: <http://www.boku.ac.at/int-master-ells-eo-thesis-en.html> and <http://www.boku.ac.at/int-master-ells-eo-graduation-en.html>

2.8.4 Master Thesis at WULS-SGGW

- The regulations for writing the master thesis, as well as the formatting required for the thesis (an example for the first 7 pages and the last page is provided), can be downloaded at <http://www.eur-organic.eu/80197.html>.

2.8.5 Master Thesis at ISARA

- For the master thesis at ISARA, students have one main supervisor (in most cases from ISARA), one co-supervisor (in most cases from their home university), and an external tutor from the organisation/institution where the master thesis is carried out. The MSc coordinator at ISARA approves a first thesis proposal for validation of the thesis topic. In a second step a full thesis proposal has to be written and approved by the supervisors.
- The supervisors will provide professional and methodical supervision throughout the master thesis work.
- The thesis work has to be completed within a period of six months.
- At the end, the thesis will be defended using a video-conference system to connect the supervisors at their various locations.
